Information:

In the 2011 NatWest Island Games Matthew achieved the first pistol medal the IoW has won in 14 years. Since then Matthew has teamed up with a Great Britain coach and seen a consistent improvement in his competition scores, and has also securing a 15th position at the British Airgun Championship where 60 of the top pistol shooters competed.

Matthew hopes to represent the IoW at the 2013 NatWest Island Games in Bermuda and will continue to compete at national competitions with the aim of qualifying for the England team this year.
