Personal and Prejudicial Interests

A Member has a Personal Interest when the item to be considered is likely to affect any interests already declared in the Member's Register of Financial and other Interests, or the Member generally or members of their family or a close associate, more than other Council Tax Payers in their Ward.

A member with a personal interest in a matter who attends the meeting at which the matter is considered must disclose to that meeting the existence and nature of that interest at the commencement of that consideration, or when the interest becomes apparent. Having declared the personal interest the Member can remain, debate and vote on the matter.

A member with a personal interest also has a prejudicial interest if the interest is one which a member of the public with knowledge of the relevant facts would reasonably regard as so significant that it is likely to prejudice the member's judgment of the public interest and if this interest affects their financial position or the financial position of a person or body as described above and/or if it relates to the determining of any approval, consent, licence, permission or registration in relation to them or any person or body described above. Having declared a prejudicial interest you must take no part in the consideration of the matter and MUST leave the room (including the public gallery).

More detailed guidance is available from the Code of Conduct or the Monitoring Officer.
