8. Code of Conduct

The following rules apply. By completing and signing this application form both parent and applicant agree to these rules:

Rules:

- NCS participants are expected to take part in all programmed activities.
- Participants are not allowed to leave the residential or other site without permission from their Group Leader.
- Participants are expected to follow any emergency procedure, such as a fire drill, as directed by their Group Leader or other staff involved in the NCS programme.
- Participants are not allowed in other people's rooms or tents.
- There is a no alcohol policy throughout all elements of the NCS programme.
- Smoking is only permitted as agreed by Group Leaders and in accordance with the rules of any venue used.
- The possession, sale, purchase or use of any illegal substances is strictly forbidden.
- NCS participants should not involve themselves in dangerous activities that will cause injury to themselves, other NCS participants or staff.
- No one should engage in abusive or anti-social behaviour towards other participants or staff.

Additional Rules for Residential Events:

- There will be separate male and female accommodation. Males and females are expected to keep to their own accommodation area.
- Participants are expected to be in their rooms at specified times (which will be indicated on the first day).

It is expected that the event will be free from serious misconduct or a breach of the rules. However, in the event that it does occur, the NCS participant concerned will not be allowed to continue on the activity and arrangements will be made for the NCS participants to be taken home. In this circumstance, the cost of transport will be covered by the participant's family.
