ANY OTHER URGENT BUSINESS (Not requiring a resolution)

- (a) Cllr Court suggested relocation of the High St dog waste bin away from the seat, to the other side of the bridge. Clerk to investigate.
- (b) Cllr Cole referred to confusion by delivery drivers as to the transition from Station Rd to Castle St. It was agreed that there was signage showing this.
- (c) Cllr Gallop referred to the decrepit state of buildings on the former Technison site below the old railway bridge. This was for sale by Scotchers. Cllr Rickards thought there might be asbestos hazard. Clerk to raise with Environmental Health.
A meeting with the Police to discuss their interest in taking over an Allotment had been cancelled at short notice and another date was being sought.
- (d) Mrs James had raised the issue of dogs running off leads in the St Martins Rd play area. H. Dea offered to raise with the dog wardens.
- (e) The No Cold Calling scheme had picked up one potential transgressor who had subsequently been checked out as genuine. Residents could obtain further packs from IoW Council Trading Standards.

There being no further business, the meeting was closed at 20.40
