

CONDITIONS OF EXHIBITING

Gallery exhibition areas are provided in the public libraries at Newport, Ryde, Freshwater and Bembridge, and exhibitions are open to the public during library opening hours.

Exhibitions are normally of a month's duration; from the beginning to the end of each month.

Please note that the Galleries are often booked as far as a year ahead, and an early application is advised.

A deposit of £50 is payable to Isle of Wight Council on confirmation of the booking

There are no charges for exhibiting but the library service will require a 10% commission on sales.

New exhibitor's work is inspected before a confirmed booking is made.

Isle of Wight Libraries reserve the right to decline bookings or to offer an alternative venue.

In the case of joint exhibitors one person is responsible for negotiations with Isle of Wight Libraries.

Exhibition bookings are subject to alterations in exceptional circumstances.

Isle of Wight Libraries accept no responsibility for loss or damage of exhibits, and any insurance coverage should be arranged privately.

The exhibitor is asked to contact the Senior Library Assistant of the respective Gallery 2 weeks in advance of the exhibition to finalise arrangements.
